

I will Start a West Finchley community newspaper but only if 10 other local people will help in the set up of this venture.

— Andrew Taylor, Retired Journalist

More details: My ability? Have been a journalist for decades, including that time I have edited a newspaper, a magazine and a webzine.

I started up The Archer community newspaper in East Finchley about seventeen years ago and it is still going strong. And has never missed an issue although it is all voluntary.

I live in West Finchley and have now received the street names of the official area from Barnet Council so am now ready to proceed.

Our website is at www.wfnews.co.uk and you can contact me through those pages.

All helpers must have Internet access.
